Overview of the Play

Fences was written by August Wilson in 1983 and is part of his ten-play series known as The Pittsburgh Cycle or Century Cycle, which depicts African American life in the 20th century. The play is set in the 1950s and focuses on Troy Maxson, a former baseball player turned garbage collector, who struggles with personal limitations, societal barriers, and familial responsibilities. The story revolves around Troy's relationships with his wife Rose, his son Cory, and his brother Gabriel, as well as his internal conflicts. Wilson masterfully explores how race, economic hardship, and personal choices shape the lives of African Americans during this period.

The Significance of the Title
