What Is Manipulation?

Manipulation involves influencing someone's thoughts, feelings, or actions to serve an individual's own interests, often without the target's conscious awareness. It's a form of social influence that can be used ethically—such as persuading someone to adopt healthier habits—or unethically, as in coercion or deception. Key characteristics of manipulation include: - Subtlety: It often operates beneath the surface, making it difficult for the target to recognize. - Intentionality: The manipulator consciously employs strategies to sway others. - Exploitation: It often leverages vulnerabilities or cognitive biases. While manipulation can be used for positive outcomes (e.g., motivating change), dark psychology emphasizes its malicious or exploitative applications.
