It delves into the personal lives, struggles, and societal influences that shaped each thinker's worldview. The selection of thinkers, while diverse, still leans toward Western philosophy and science. Non-Western thinkers such as Al-Farabi, Avicenna, or indigenous knowledge systems are less prominently featured, which might give an incomplete picture of global intellectual history.

Limited Engagement with Contemporary Debates

Although historical figures are thoroughly covered, the book sometimes falls short in connecting their ideas to contemporary issues such as technology ethics, environmental challenges, or social justice, which could enhance its relevance for modern readers.
